

Sexual Harassment Policy

C. Reporting Sexually Harassing Behavior.

Murray State University encourages every member of the University community who believes they have been the victim of sexual harassment to report the allegations as soon as possible. Time limitations apply to the reporting of claims and the chance for remedial action may be lost by delay.

The University has formal and informal processes for resolving claims of sexual harassment. Victims of sexual