

Graduate Program course Substitution Form

The Graduate Course Substitution Form is used to make changes to the original planned program form on file. If you have taken courses other than what were listed on your original degree plan, they must be approved by your advisor and collegiate graduate coordinator. Return this form to your academic advisor for approval. If he/she approves the substitution, he/she will submit the form